

Central University of Punjab fraternity pledges to end Sexual Harassment and build an equitable society

Bathinda, August 18: To sensitize students about ending sexual harassment and violence from our society, the Internal Complaints Committee at the Central University of Punjab has initiated for the setting up of a Pledge Wall for building an equitable society.

On this occasion Prof. Raghavendra P. Tiwari, the Vice-Chancellor along with university officials signs the pledge and pin down inspirational messages for youngsters. “Sexual Harassment is a curse in the society. We should commit ourself to stop all forms and manifestation of this evil”, said Prof. Tiwari.

Prof. Anjana Munshi, Director, Research and Development Cell, and Prof. R.K. Wusirika, Dean Incharge Academics; encouraged youngsters to promise to be a part of solution to end the sexual harassment. Prof. Monisha Dhiman, Director, IQAC, urges everyone to pledge for gender equality and respect for women. Prof. Vinod Kumar Garg, Dean Student Welfare, inspired youngsters to stop sexual harassment in all possible ways at all places.

The Dean of School, HoDs, faculty and students from different departments of the university also put up their promise on the pledge wall to end sexual harassment and build an equitable society.

