

Short Bio data

Prof. (Dr.) S. K. Bawa is currently working in the Central University of Punjab, Bathinda as Prof. & Head, Deptt. of Education and Director IQAC. She worked previously at Punjabi University Patiala in the Deptt. of Education with an additional responsibility as Director International students and Provost and has also worked as Professor & Dean, Faculty of Education on Deputation basis in Lovely Professional University, Punjab for six years. She graduated from Punjab Agricultural University and did Bachelor's, Master's and doctorate in Education from GNDU, Amritsar.

She has published more than seventy research papers and guided about twenty research scholars at doctorate level. Eleven books are published to her credit besides, standardizing twenty-two psychological tests and editing research papers for reputed journals of education and psychology. She is visiting Professor of KMUTT, Bangkok.

She has been awarded Professional Involvement Award by PLAI (1995) and Best Educationist Award by Indian Psychometric and Educational Research Association (2009), and Prof. V P Sharma Award for contribution in education by PLAI (2011), IPERA award for Best Women Educationist (2014) and IATE Award (2019).

She has attended about fifty national and international conferences and seminars. She has visited Wolver Hampton University, UK , Nanyang University, Singapore. She has visited Kenya, Tanzania, Rwanda, Burundi, Malaysia, Dubai, Bhutan and Thailand for attending educational fairs and conferences.

She has worked for major and minor projects of UGC, ICSSR and universities. She has acted as resource persons in different institutions and academic staff colleges. She has also worked as curriculum developer for B.Ed , M.Ed and M.Phil/Ph.D programmes.

She is professionally associated with Indian Science Congress , as Executive member of Praachi Psycho Cultural Research Association, Executive member of Psycho-linguistic Association, All India Association for Educational Research, Indian Psychometric and Educational Research Association, Council of Behavioral Scientists, Indian Psychological Association, Chairperson of India chapter of International Professional Development Association(UK) and President (HQ) of Global Educational Research Association.

She is especially interested in bringing quality in teacher education for which she is working on curriculum development, e-content, pedagogical changes, educational research and women education.