Special Online Counselling for Filling Vacant Seats in SC/ST Categories

Online counseling for admissions to various programmes offered during 2016-17 was conducted in two cycles. Under first cycle, online counselling was conducted three times between 1 July to 15 July, 2016. Second online counseling to fill the vacant seats was conducted on 21st, 22nd, 23rd and 25th July, 2016. Even after these seven lists, some seats for SC/ST category are still vacant in different programmes. So, a special online counseling to fill vacant seats in SC/ST categories will be conducted on 27th July, 2016. Seats left vacant after this special drive will be converted to open category.

All the Candidates belonging to SC/ST category who appeared in CUCET-2016 examination and submitted the Online Counselling Form of Central University of Punjab will be eligible to participate in the online counseling as per the following schedule.

Online counselling will be divided into two steps. In first step, candidates will be offered seats for locking their preference and each candidate will be able to lock one preference between 8 AM-11 AM. Among the locked choices, merit will be prepared for each programme and candidate(s) with higher merit will be offered the seat for fee submission as per availability of seats.

Candidates need to login to their Web portal (http://www.cup.edu.in/admission_counseling/users/dashboard) with the Username and password they are registered with. Candidates will be able to lock their preference between 8-11 AM and will be required to submit the fee (if offered seat) between 2-6 PM to secure the allotted seat. In case the candidate fails to deposit the fee within the stipulated date & time, his/her seat will be declared vacant.
