

ACHIEVEMENT

Central University of Punjab ranked at 87th Position in “University Category” of MHRD’s NIRF India Rankings 2020

- CUPB once again ranked at the top among newly established Central Universities of the country in NIRF India Rankings 2020
- CUPB improved its ranking by 8 spots, by getting 87th position in NIRF India Rankings 2020 as compared to 95th Rank in 2019 Rankings
- CUPB is the youngest university to be ranked among the Top 100 Best Universities list of India twice in last two years.

11th June 2020, Bathinda: Central University of Punjab has achieved another milestone by getting 87th Rank in the University Category in MHRD’S NIRF India Rankings 2020. This University get figured in the list of Top 100 Best Universities of India for the second time in the last two consecutive years. CUPB once again stood on top with the best rank among all the other newly established Central Universities of India in National Institutional Ranking Framework (NIRF) 2020 India Rankings released by honourable HRD Minister Dr. Ramesh Pokhriyal Nishank on 11th June 2020. CUPB has improved its ranking in NIRF this year by getting 87th Position in 2020 Edition, as compared to 95th rank in NIRF 2019 Rankings.

To rank Universities/Institutes across the country, NIRF follows MHRD approved Methodology to evaluate the educational institutions on five parameters. The details of these parameters are: “Teaching, Learning and Resources,” “Research and Professional Practices,” “Graduation Outcomes,” “Outreach and Inclusivity,” and “Perception”. A total of 3771 unique institutions participated in “NIRF India Rankings 2020”. MHRD ranked all educational institutions across the country in 10 different categories.

Prof. S.S. Johl, honourable Chancellor of CUPB congratulated CUPB faculty, staff & students on this remarkable achievement. He encouraged CUPB Employees to continue their excellent work and motivated them to make this university as one of the best university across the world. Prof. R.K. Kohli, the Vice-Chancellor, stated that CUPB is the Youngest University, & the only university among the newly established Central Universities, which has made its way to get ranked among the Best 100 Universities of India list for the second time in last two years. He added, in NIRF Rankings 2020, our University showcased better performance and take a leap of eight spots by getting 87th position as compared to 95th spot of last year. He dedicated this success to the hard work of CUPB faculty, officers, staff, IQAC Cell & university students.

On this occasion, Sh. K.P.S. Mundra, CUPB Registrar said, CUPB has got this status in just 11 years of its inception. He asserted that CUPB has lot of potential, and expressed his firm belief that the University’s ranking will surely improve in the years to come. Prof. P. Ramarao, Dean Academic Affairs informed that CUPB got an overall score of 40.93 in NIRF Ranking this year, improving by 2.25 points from last year. He added this is the proud moment for our Institution as well as for our city “Bathinda”. Prof. V.K. Garg, Dean Students Welfare, shared that this good news spreads the feeling of happiness & satisfaction among our students, who are studying at CUPB from 28 different states. Prof. S.K. Bawa, Director IQAC mentioned that CUPB administration & faculty is committed to set new quality standards in education & research, and this report has motivated each one of us to perform better.