

School of Management Organizes a Webinar (Sponsored by SEBI & AMFI) on “Strategic Financial Planning Under COVID-19”

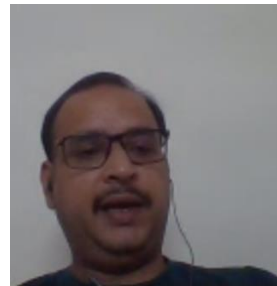

The School of Management (Department of Financial Administration) organized a webinar on strategic financial planning Under Covid-19 in association with Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) & Association of Mutual Funds in India (AMFI) on 11th August 2020. The session witnessed inputs from senior authorities from reputed institutes namely; SEBI, NPS, NSDL and AMFI.

Mr. Viral Parekh, AGM SEBI addressing the participants

Mr. Surya Kant Sharma, Senior Consultant – AMFI interacting with participants

Mr. Ankur Mittal, VP NSDL

Mr. Bawa Singh, NPS Providing insights about National Pension Scheme

Dr. Anand Thakur, Convener of this event delivered the welcome address. Prof. R.K Wusirika, Dean In-charge Academics and Prof. Anjana Munshi, Dean Research extended best wishes to participants. The convener stated that about 300 participants (including MBA & M. Com students of CUPB) from more than 150 institutes throughout India had registered for this event.

Prof. R.K Wusirika, Dean In-charge Academics

Prof. Anjana Munshi, Dean, Research

Dr. Anand Thakur, Convener & Head

Dr. Ruchita Verma and Dr. Eronimus (Organizing Secretary) introduced the four speakers to the audience.

Mr. Viral Parekh, AGM-SEBI provided insights on different aspects of stock market operations. Mr. Surya Kant Sharma, Senior Consultant – AMFI, enlighten the participants with inputs on alternative saving mechanisms.

Mr. Ankur Mittal, VP NSDL spoke about NSDL depository system and instruments in Capital Market.

Mr. Bawa Singh, NPS highlighted the key aspects of National Pension Scheme. Vote of thanks for the session was presented by Dr. Dhanraj Sharma.