

Statement of Non-discrimination

The Central University of Punjab, Bathinda (CUPB) is a community comprising of individuals from different religions, regions, caste affiliations and linguistic backgrounds. It is a place with equal opportunity for everyone irrespective of any of the above sectorial affiliations. While respecting the freedom and rights of individuals to their own faith and beliefs, CUPB shall provide a conducive environment to all for achieving their full potential and realizing their dreams.

The university puts in its best efforts to ensure that no individual or community faces discrimination of any kind based on religion, caste, sex, appearance or state of domicile and that acts of discrimination on campus are dealt with extreme seriousness. Any such issues may be reported to Anti-Discrimination Officer (Professor Anjana Munshi, Dean School of Health Sciences) anjanadurani@yahoo.co.in