contribution. Project should be graded and marks obtained added in CGPA.

2. The curriculum is required to be improved every year in line with the recent developments in the subject so that the global competency of our students will enhance.
3. Modifications with relevance to global scenarios, involvement of case studies, simulations will add more value to course.
4. There is much burden on the students and faculty as well.
5. Level of curriculum needs to be raised to meet the global standards.
6. The first Unit on Development can be reduced and more content on Development Communication can be added
7. Some of the topics from the first semester of Course titled Reporting for Print Media are repeated in the syllabus. The repetition can be deleted.
