Online Education

1. Does all programs/courses were completed on time.	Yes
2. Measures taken to complete the syllabus of courses and programs.	The admission through CUCET for the first semester for the 2021 session was delayed but the classes for the third semester (2020 session) were started well in time, the student were physically present in the campus from August 2021 onwards. The university rigorously followed the UGC academic calendar and aligned the university calendar accordingly. The 2021 batch students attended the classes online during their first semester where Deans and Head of the departments made sure that the syllabus was completed in time where time to time online meetings were held to review the teaching and help faculty if needed. Library off-campus access was given to the students to access the e-book and journals available in the Central library of the university. The university has a knowledge management system (KMS) (http://kr.cup.edu.in/) in which learning materials is uploaded by the faculty so that students may download it for use. Now, the university also has Learning Management System (LMS) (https://lms.cup.edu.in/) which is being used by faculty and students for online support of teaching-learning material. The faculty were also encouraged to create What-app groups for their respective subjects for disseminating quick information. The continuous assessment was done online to avoid last minute rush. The 2021 batch students were called to attend the classes on offline mode from April 2022. Hence most of the syllabus was completed on time. Various online tools were used to provide the study material to students, hand-outs and presentations were shared on Google classrooms in addition the faculty recorded their lectures and shared with students for easy access.
