ONE DAY TRAINING PROGRAMME ON HUMAN RIGHTS

Organized by

Department of Law
Central University of Punjab, Bathinda

In Association with
National Human Rights Commission,
New Delhi

Department of Law Central University of Punjab

Central University of Punjab, Bathinda has been established through the Central Universities Act, 2009. This University is poised to write new alphabet on the academic horizon of India. The Department of Law at Central University of Punjab functions with an objective to sensitize the younger generation on legal problems and to undertake research along with its legal dimensions. The Department aims to make strategic investigations to enable informed decision making in the public and personal realms to promote peace and sustainability for maintaining the harmony of life. Being a dynamic department of the upwardly mobile organization, it is destined to emerge as a quality provider of teaching and research, knowledge and skills, products and services, attitudes and ethics. It is gearing up to provide proper institutional leadership to the emerging demands of access, equity, relevance and quality in the legal education system in India. The Department dynamically and creatively responds to the shifting paradigms in legal education in tune with the changing needs of society.

The Department of Law has been actively promoting the human rights education in the region through its various activities. A certificate course in Human Rights and Duties (UGC Scheme: Human Rights Education) is being offered by the department. The department in collaboration with the National Human Rights Commission, New Delhi is organizing One Day Training Programme to spread human rights literacy among students.
