General Observations for All Departments

- All departments MUST offer at least one IDC and VAC
- Do not assign a new course code if the course has just been moved from one semester to another without any change in content
- In the transactional Mode, the co-instructor model of teaching should be added and practised.
- The department may formulate some criteria to thoroughly assess the students to be given the option for one year of research based on their interest and dedication.
- The Teaching Assistantship in PhD must be conducted and evaluated as approved in the curriculum.
- The Lab Rotation for newly joined PhD students must be followed as per the approved guidelines.
- The students must go through the AI Policy of the university for compliance.

The observations and the Curriculum Audit report are sent to the respective departments for compliance. The suggested changes have to be incorporated before the BoS of the department is conducted.
