CENTRAL UNIVERSITY OF PUNJAB, BATHINDA
17-18, FEBRUARY 2026

About the Conference

The Central University of Punjab, Bathinda, is organizing a Two-Day International Conference on Breast Cancer entitled “Transforming Breast Cancer Care: Early Detection, Precision Medicine, and Patient Outcomes” on 17–18th February 2026 under the aegis of DST-PURSE scheme, Govt. of India. Breast cancer is a major public health challenge in India, demanding strong integration of basic, translational, and clinical cancer research. Advances in molecular oncology, genomics, biomarker discovery, precision medicine, and multidisciplinary care have transformed disease management, yet effective translation from bench to bedside remains critical. Aligned with DST-PURSE objectives, the conference aims to promote research excellence, interdisciplinary collaboration, and dissemination of cutting-edge cancer research to improve early detection, therapeutic decision-making, and patient outcomes. Further to encourage the next generation of scientists, the conference will provide young researchers and students with an opportunity to present their work through poster presentations, where they will receive valuable insights and mentorship from experts in the field.

Conference Themes/Topics Covered

- Breast cancer awareness, prevention, and early detection
- Epidemiology and public health perspectives
- Advances in imaging, pathology, and molecular diagnostics
- Cancer genomics, transcriptomics and metabolomics, biomarkers, and translational research
- Precision medicine and targeted therapies
- Surgical, medical, and radiation oncology approaches
- Multidisciplinary tumor board-based management
- Triple-negative and aggressive breast cancers
- Patient outcomes, survivorship, and quality of life
- Psychosocial support and rehabilitation in breast cancer care.

Who can Attend

- Oncologists, Surgeons, Pathologists, and Radiologists
- Academicians
- Allied health staff members
- Industry Personnel
- M.Sc. students, PhD scholars, and Postdoctoral fellows.
